Each year the Farmers Electric Cooperative sponsors a trip for two high school students, who display strong leadership skills, to attend the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association's Government-In-Action Youth Tour in Washington, D.C. The tour gives students the opportunity to meet government leaders including their Congressman and Senators. Students also receive a behind the scenes tour of Washington, D.C. its monuments, museums and other historic buildings. This year the group will be leaving from Austin so the students can learn a little Texas history before setting out for the nation's capital.
